From the Interim Pastor

Dear Members and Friends,

The hymn, "We Gather Together" was originally written to celebrate the Netherlands' victory over Spain thus gaining independence. It has been translated many ways with a variety of verses added. Most of you are familiar with this verse: We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing. God chastens and hastens His will to make known. The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing sing praises to God's name, He forgets not his own. (The war imagery shows through clearly.) I found many other versions as I looked through my array of hymnals. I share these words with you today:

We gather together to ask for God's blessing, to live in community, seeking God's will. We come now as sisters and brothers, confessing the sins that divide and the wrong in us still. Beside us, forgiving, enabling, sustaining, you call, us O Savior, to life that is new. You draw us away from self-centered complaining. You lead us and guide us in ways that are true. (A bit clumsy in spots fitting the tune but it is the sentiment, I'm sharing.)

I have heard many laments about what we can't do during this pandemic. As the season of traditional gatherings approaches this loss will become more apparent. My family has already decided that we will not be gathering for Thanksgiving. Zoom, facetime and phone calls will have to do. For some, it might feel like a relief to not have to participate in these obligatory gatherings.

I've also been thinking about the "doing" that you might not be doing and wondering how you are filling the space. If you regularly supplied coffee hour or attended Men's Fellowship or other functions at church, what are you doing with that time? Perhaps this pandemic, which has taken away so much, has also provided some blessings. Perhaps we can fill that not-gathering time with making contact on a deeper level. Are there people with whom you haven't spoken or communicated for months? Maybe give them a call or send a note or an email. Is there a person or family with whom you are estranged? Now, when life feels a bit more precarious, might be the time to reach out to cross the divide. And, how are we praying for each other?

As we gather in spirit, let us ask for God's blessing on our friends and our foes. Let us seek God's will and rely on God's strength to help us heal past hurts and reconnect. God has not forgotten us and this perceived oppression will someday cease from distressing, so let us praise God. Happy Thanksgiving.

Grace,

Rev. Jennifer Geary

Stewardship Message

Church of Christ, Congregational, UCC has been an anchor in Millis for over 300 years. Through the centuries, church members have given of their time, talent and treasure to ensure the gift of God's grace, and a ministry of caring, continued in this area.

Now is our opportunity to be part of such a great cloud of witnesses. At the beginning of November, you will receive a letter from the Prudential Committee asking you to complete a pledge card. Pledging is a faith commitment. It asks us to believe in the future that God has planned and to participate in the coming of the God-dom on earth as it is in heaven. Our community, and the world, need the hope for which we stand. Our spire points toward heaven to remind all who pass that God is great and greatly to be praised.

When the pledge card arrives please prayerfully consider what portion of your income you can share with the world through the church. God, through the church has blessed your life. What can you give to ensure others will also know that blessing?

Please return your completed pledge card to the Church office by November 15th. You can mail it in, or you can place it in an envelope addressed to Church of Christ and drop it through the mail slot on the side door of the church building. On November 15th, we will have a special worship service to share gratitude and to consecrate our commitments. Thank you for being God's hands and feet here in this place.

A Message from the Deacons

November brings shortened hours of daylight, colder days with thoughts and plans for the upcoming holiday season. We know that this year our traditional gatherings will most likely be different than we are used to. Different can be fun, be a start of a new tradition or going back to ones we had forgotten. Gatherings may be online that may include those you don't usually connect with during the busy season. As we begin our plans, let us look for the moments we are grateful for.

Sunday, November 15th, the Deacons will be leading an alternative online worship service with the focus on gratitude and thankfulness. To prepare for this service, we invite you to make and fill a Gratitude Jar for yourself or with your family. We will share our thoughts during the worship service. You can start your jar at the beginning of the month or for the week of November 9-15th.

Here's how to make and use a gratitude jar:

1. Start with an empty plastic jar. A peanut butter or mayonnaise jar work well, but you can also go with something larger if you have it.
2. Anything goes for decoration - tissue paper, paint, markers, glitter
3. Don't forget the lid.
4. Place the jar in a prominent place along with slips of paper, pencils, crayons etc.
5. Kick it off together by discussing what is gratitude - simply gratitude is about focusing on what's good in our lives and being thankful for the things we have. It is pausing to notice and appreciate the things that we often take for granted, like having a place to live, food, clean water, friends, family, pets, even access to technology.
6. Encourage each family member to help fill the jar, be it with words or drawings and add a slip to the jar each day.
7. Designate a time each week to gather together to look through the slips. Point out ideas that are especially thoughtful or creative.

We hope to see many families and children at the online service on November 15th to share your thoughts.

The Deacons are continuing to work on updating our church membership list and assisting Rev. Geary with worship. A special thank you to members of the congregation who have offered their assistance with online worship.

A reminder that the Deacons Fund is available for church members who find themselves in need. Please contact Rev. Geary.

Blessings, Sue Conte and Wendy Schneider Co-Lead Deacons

A Little Hymn History

These two hymns are ones that we will be using this fall. While we really can't raise our voices in song, I thought that it might be interesting to know about the composers and lyricists of the hymns we sing.

"O Jesus I Have Promised" was written on the occasion of the confirmation of his own two sons and daughter at Castle Camps in 1869. The hymn tune was written in 1881 by Arthur H Mann, who at one period in his life served as organist and choirmaster at King's College, Cambridge, famous for its superb choral music. Tune: Angel's Story A.H. Mann 1883

"This Is the Day of New Beginnings" 1978 words – Music Carlton Young 1987 Music: Brian Wren
Brian Wren (b. Romford, Essex, England, 1936) is a major British figure in the revival of contemporary hymn writing. He studied French literature at New College and theology at Mansfield College in Oxford, England. Ordained in 1965, he was pastor of the Congregational Church (now United Reformed) in Hockley and Hawkwell, Essex, from 1965 to 1970. He worked for the British Council of Churches and several other organizations involved in fighting poverty and promoting peace and justice. This work resulted in his writing of Education for Justice (1977) and Patriotism and Peace (1983). With a ministry throughout the English-speaking world, Wren now resides in the United States where he is active as a freelance lecturer, preacher, and full-time hymn writer. He has also produced What Language Shall I Borrow? (1989), a discussion guide to inclusive language in Christian worship.
