
Church of Christ, Congregational
Church Use Agreement

Renters using the church building will be charged a non-refundable Sexton fee of $55 for general clean-up and securing the building and a refundable Damage Deposit. Damage Deposits will be refunded assuming that the following conditions are met:

Use of the building

Reasons for using the facility will be clearly stated on the application and must be adhered to. Renters must have prior approval to use any room other than those listed in the original application. Occupancy limits of the building will not be exceeded and the Trustees must be notified if the number of persons using the facility exceeds the number listed on the application. Please notify us immediately if any damage occurs

Cleanliness

Please note that the Sexton fee covers general clean-up and securing the building only. All individuals and groups using the church building are expected to leave any room rented in the same condition in which it was found. Please dispose of trash in the proper containers and return all furniture to its proper place. The breakdown of folding chairs and tables is the responsibility of the renter. Renters are also responsible for removing and disposing of any decorations.

Safety

For large groups of children, a minimum of 1 adult per 6 children is required. Adults renting the building are responsible for monitoring bathroom areas when being used by children in their group and for supervising minors at all times. Church of Christ, Congregational will not be held liable for any injuries sustained while using the Church building.

I have read and understand the above agreement.
